OFFICE OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONER.
29 Pemberton square.

Boston, Friday, January 10, 1919.

Police Commissioner Curtis was at his office today and transacted the following business:

The records of Thursday last were read and approved.

The Superintendent of Police was directed to promulgate the following to the Department by General Order:-

Military drills and revolver practice will be held for officers of all grades beginning Monday, January 20, and ending April 30, 1919.

The following described officers will be exempted from attending military drills only:

1. Those doing duty regularly at Headquarters.
2. Those doing duty regularly at station-houses as clerks, or at City Hall or the Public Library and its branches.
3. Those who in the opinion of their respective commanding officers are incapacitated because of injuries or disease; but temporary sickness or injury will serve as an excuse only while it lasts.
4. Those who on the first of May, 1919, shall have passed the age of fifty years.
5. Those excused by the Superintendent for any special reason satisfactory to him.

Commanding officers of Divisions will report to the Superintendent on Monday, January 13, 1919, the following information:-

- (a) Number of men eligible for drill and revolver practice under fifty years of age as in section 4.
- (b) Names of officers and men of any age eligible for revolver practice only.
- (c) Names of officers and men who should be excused from both drill and revolver practice on account of injuries or sickness.

Commanding officers of Divisions may excuse particular men from drills and revolvers practice on specified days when they are needed for important police work, but drills so lost must be taken later.

The attendance at drills and revolver practice by officers above the rank of patrolman will be ordered and regulated by the Superintendent.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1919.

OFFICE OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONER.
29 Pemberton square.

Boston, Saturday, January 25, 1919.

Police Commissioner Curtis was at his office today and transacted the following business:

The records of Friday last were read and approved.

In the matter of the complaint made by Captain James P. Canney of Division 4 against Patrolman Henry T. Cunniff of Division 4 for violation of Rule 40 of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, to wit:

Absence without leave and Insubordination.

1st Charge: Absence without leave.

Specification: In that the said Patrolman Henry T. Cunniff was absent from duty without leave on Thursday, December 12, 1918.

2d Charge: Insubordination.

Specification: In that the said Patrolman Henry T. Cunniff, refused to report in writing his reasons for being absent from duty on December 13, 1918, as directed to do by Sergeant Oscar W. Burgess of Station 4.

It appeared that a hearing was called before a Trial Board, consisting of Captains Joseph Harriman, Jeremiah F. Gallivan and James J. Walkins, on the twenty-third day of January, current, at 4 p. m., after due notice had been served on the said Patrolman Cunniff by giving him a true copy of the complaint, and the time was changed to 2.30 p. m., January 23, current, and then it appeared that a hearing was had. He appeared with counsel and pleaded guilty to charge 1 and not guilty to charge 2. The Board found him guilty as charged in the complaint. The Commissioner approved the finding and with the recommendation of the Board ordered that the said Patrolman Henry T. Cunniff be dismissed from the Police Department, to take effect Saturday, January 25, 1919, at 5.45 p. m.

OFFICE OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONER.
29 Pemberton square.

Boston, Wednesday, January 29, 1919.

Police Commissioner Curtis was at his office today and transacted the following business:

The records of Tuesday last were read and approved.

The Superintendent of Police was directed to promulgate the following to the Department by General Order:-

Sergeant Horatio J. Homer of Headquarters having arrived at the age of seventy-one years and having performed faithful service in the Police Department for forty and one-twelfth years, it is hereby Ordered: His Honor the Mayor having approved the same, that the said Sergeant Homer be retired from active service and that his name be placed upon the Department pension roll with pay at the rate of Eight Hundred and Seventy-five (875) Dollars per annum, said sum being one-half of the amount of compensation received by him in the office from which he is retired; to take effect Wednesday, January 29, 1919, at 5.45 P. M.

Sergeant Homer was appointed a patrolman December 24, 1878, and assigned to Headquarters as messenger. He was promoted to sergeant in September, 1895, and has therefore served as messenger to every Board of Police up to the time of the reorganization of the Department in 1906, when my predecessor was appointed Police Commissioner. He continued as messenger under him and under the present Commissioner to date. During this long service he has performed his duties with uniform courtesy and strict attention to all the requirements of his exacting position, and will be missed by many citizens of Boston having business with the Department and by all connected with Headquarters. My wish is that he may recover his health and enjoy many years of well-deserved rest.

A requisition was made on the Civil Service Commission for the names of eligible persons to fill one vacancy in the position of janitor with pay at the rate of Nine Hundred Thirty-nine (939) Dollars per annum.

The Superintendent of Police was directed to promulgate the following to the Department by General Order:-

The resignation of Patrolman William E. Nolan of Division 4 having been presented, it is hereby accepted, to take effect Friday, January 31, 1919, at 7.45 A. M.

In the matter of the complaint made by Captain Forrest F. Hall of Division 14 against Patrolman Harry Quirk of Division 14 for violation of Rule 34 of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, to wit:-

Specification: In that the said Harry Quirk has engaged in a private business outside that of the Police Department, namely,- the purchase, sale and exchange of automobiles.

It appeared that a hearing was called before a Trial Board, consisting of Captains Joseph Harriman, Jeremiah F. Gallivan and James J. Walkins, on the twenty-third day of January, current, after due notice had been served on the said Patrolman Quirk by giving him a true copy of the complaint, and it was continued to the twenty-seventh day of January, current, and then it appeared that a hearing was had. He appeared with counsel and pleaded guilty to the charge and the Board found him guilty as charged in the complaint. The Commissioner approved the finding and with the recommendation of the Board ordered that the said Patrolman Harry Quirk be dismissed from the Police Department, to take effect Thursday, January 30, 1919, at 5.45 P. M.

The application of the George Cousins Company by R. E. Libby, Representative, for an Amusement License to have an automobile show in Horticultural Hall located at 300 Massachusetts avenue on March 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22, current, was forwarded to His Honor the Mayor approved.

BOSTON, THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1919. Contd.

The Superintendent of Police was directed to promulgate the following to the Department by General Order:-

Notice is hereby given that on a day in February, 1919, all Reservemen will be required to take a written examination on police rules and general duty. The date and place of the examination and the names of the officers in charge will be announced hereafter.

The Examining Board will mark the papers and report to the Commissioner the percentage secured by each of the men examined. Assuming that their percentages are satisfactory and that their conduct in other respects fits them to be regular patrolmen, and that they have served at least six months, they will be advanced in the order of their original appointment, but the men in each group in accordance with their respective percentages.

Should two or more men of the same group secure the same percentage those particular men will be advanced in the order in which they ranked when certified by the Civil Service Commission.

As a reward for marked excellence the five Reservemen who secure the highest percentages will be promoted at once, if found to be otherwise fit, and provided they have served at least six months.

Any man whose examination is not satisfactory will be passed over, and his continuance in the Department will be doubtful. On the other hand the Commissioner may at any time advance a man out of the regular order for conspicuous fitness or for especially meritorious service.

Division Commanders and all members of the Force under them should do everything in their power to forward the instruction of the Reservemen who are to take the examination, not only in the interest of the Reservemen themselves but for the benefit of the Department and for the credit of their respective Divisions.
